

Spring 2021

WELCOME

From the Desk of the Executive Director

Hello! Let me introduce myself. I'm Jess O'Brien, the new Executive Director at Beaufort Digital Corridor. Although I'm new to this position, I'm no stranger to the organization. Previously, I served on the inaugural BDC Board of Directors from 2018-2020. I'm excited to be back and have the opportunity to work here full-time.

My love of working with start-ups sparked during a previous stint working for a marketing agency located within Atlanta Tech Village. I've experience first-hand what it's like to be a resident at a start-up village and what it takes to be successful. Since, I've worked with companies of all sizes from SMBs to national franchises. I relocated from Atlanta, GA to the Lowcountry in 2014. While my career has spanned across the southeast, I'm proud to call Beaufort, SC home.

I'm excited to bring my knowledge of scaling start-ups to members, residents and partners of the Beaufort Digital Corridor. I'm looking forward to serving as your ED. Stop by and say hi or connect with me at one of our upcoming events below.
