From the Director

Wow! Just like that, the end of summer is here and thankfully, slightly cooler mornings. We have been quite busy over the past few months extending the Digital Corridor's model to neighboring Beaufort, a coastal city with many similar characteristics to Charleston. We have expanded our role with code education by launching CODEcamp After School, while focusing on training teachers to get middle schoolers interested in computer science. Flagship3 continues to move forward, with ground-breaking expected late fall. As a community-sourced initiative all of this progress is largely due to the overwhelming support from our tech community and public leadership. Cheers!

Welcome New Members

2017 iFive:K

Planning is underway for the 2017 iFive:K. Check out our pictures and video from last year and contact us if you would like to sponsor the upcoming event. For updates on next years race, follow us @iFiveK, like us on Facebook, and subscribe to our newsletter to be sure you're among the first to know! See you at the starting line in April!

TALENT

CODEcamp

Since Summer 2012, CODEcamp has successfully introduced over 2,000 adults and kids to the world of computer programming. Now, we have launched CODEcamp After School with a goal to get middle schoolers interested in a career in computer science. If you would like to sponsor a disadvantaged child, please contact me.

SPACES

Flagships

The Flagships continue to play an important role with hosting up-and-coming tech companies in Charleston. We have twenty-five companies in residence including sovi, waitlist me, duvet, and isi technology. If you are a tech company seeking transitional office space, please visit our website to check availability.

BASEcamp

By November, the Beaufort Digital Corridor will open BASEcamp, a facility that will play host to Beaufort's knowledge-based community. Like the CDC with Charleston, the Beaufort Digital Corridor will attract, nurture and promote Beaufort's knowledge economy through a combination of technology-enabled initiatives and business incentives, private business support and member-driven programming.

CAPITAL

Capital Update

Investment-worthy tech companies in Charleston continue raising funds from the private markets. Recent transactions include ISI Technology, Atlatl Software, Ceterus, and Zubie. Lighter Capital has just been added to our growing number of investment companies seeking to assist start-ups in the Charleston market. If we can assist you with capital opportunities, please contact us.

Did You Know?

At 10,250, there are more people employed in the software/math sector in Charleston than the total workforce (8,100) at Boeing. Source: US Census Bureau

Thanks to Our Partners

Fridays @ the Corridor

Be sure to join us for this monthly series, alternating between technical and business talks, held at the Flagship on the third Friday of each month. View our recent talks or RSVP for the next session.

Thank you for your continued support of the Charleston Digital Corridor. Our success is a reflection of our terrific engagement and collaboration. Continued success!!
