From the Director

Ahhhh..the dog days of summer are here. Hopefully you will get to take a few days off to vacation in a place just a bit cooler. For our part, we are going to hang in our cool offices and have fun working with our collaborators to make Charleston's tech business and education climate even better. We have some good stuff up our sleeves.

COMMUNITY

11th Annual iFiveK

Another year and yet another successful iFiveK. Thank you to everyone who participated this past April and especially our wonderful sponsors who support this event that raises funds for CODEcamp scholarships. Check out our pictures and video to relive all the fun. Planning for 2018 is underway and you can bet it will be even better.

Contact us if you want to sponsor the 2018 event. For updates, follow us @iFiveK, like us on Facebook, and subscribe to our newsletter to be sure you're among the first to know! Thank you again to all sponsors, vendors, and participants. See you in 2018!

Leadership Profiles

Charleston's rise as a tech town is the direct result of effective leadership by key players in our community. Catch our most recent monthly profile on Launchpeer's Jake and Belinda Hare and visit our site to take a look over the others. Trust me...some great insights can be gleaned.

Save The Date

The CorridorBASH, which will be held on October 26th, 2017, is an annual limited-attendance networking event celebrating another year of growth in Charleston's tech community. The event brings all together a diverse mix of tech professionals and others interested in celebrating and growing Charleston's tech economy.

TALENT

CODEcamp

Charleston has rapidly become the envy of communities seeking to build a high-wage, tech economy. The underpinning of our community is the proliferation of solid education offerings for all ages. Thankfully, in the last five years, our computer science and code education offerings have blossomed and will support the further growth of Charleston's tech economy.

With over 2,000 attendees, our affordable CODEcamp program has played an important role with the development of Charleston's technical landscape. In 2017, this program has been right-sized in recognition of the various code education programs in our community. Come out to our CODEcamp meetup on July 12th to learn about our program improvements. Can't make it? Contact me to learn more.

CODEcamp Kids: in addition to our After School program at Moultrie Middle School, our CODEcamp Kids Summer Camps for middle schoolers are back and the best ever. We have a few spots for the camp starting the week of July17th. Learn more and register here.

SPACES

Flagships

The Flagships continue to be the go-to place for early-stage tech companies in Charleston. Congrats to Heatworks for graduating into our community and continuing down the path to business success. If you are a tech company seeking transitional, high-quality office space, please visit our website to check availability.

CAPITAL

Capital Update

Charleston's tech companies continue to raise capital to drive growth and business acquisitions. Recently, Blackbaud locked down a new financing arrangement; Ceterus raised a second capital round; and Flagship company, Zeriscope, received a seed round from SC Launch. Congratulations to all.

Did You Know?

Charleston received an unprecedented six national rankings in just five months (March-July 2017). No kidding! Check it out. We must be doing something right.

Thanks to Our Partners

CharlestonCodes™ is a directory of known code education offerings by traditional higher education institutions, private/non-profit code programs, code classes for kids and teens, & events in Charleston, South Carolina.

Thank you for your continued support of the Charleston Digital Corridor. Our success is a reflection of our terrific engagement and collaboration. Continued success!!
