From the Director

People often ask me what is the most important issue facing the future of the tech industry in Charleston. Is it capital? Talent perhaps? High-speed bandwidth? Affordable housing for young tech workers? Transportation options? Flexible office options for early-stage tech companies? The answer is YES...they all are.

The Digital Corridor sees the aforementioned issues as equally important. Now that we are well past the initial sniff test by successfully demonstrating we can grow a high-wage tech economy, addressing the next level of challenges will require a deeper level of collaboration between private enterprise, education and government. The Corridor has and will continue to focus on these important issues holistically in support of you.

COMMUNITY

Mayoral Candidate Mixer

The Digital Corridor was pleased to host the candidates seeking to become the next Mayor of Charleston. You can read the editorial ahead of the event here and brief article on their comments here. Many thanks to Blue Acorn, PeopleMatter, Bibliolabs and BoomTown for sponsoring this event.

Leadership Profile Series

In August, the Digital Corridor launched a monthly Leadership profile series featuring individuals who are driving Charleston's tech scene forward. You can catch the first two profiles here and here. Look for these on or around the 15th of each month on our website or follow-us on social media.

Fridays @ the Corridor

The topics for our Fridays @ the Corridor series are a balance between CODEtalks and Business topics. To see upcoming topics, please visit Events Calendar. If not able to attend these in person, you can keep up with the sessions on our Fridays video channel.

Foundation Board

The Charleston Digital Corridor Foundation recently announced the 2015-16 Board of Directors. You can read the release here and learn more about our board members here.

CODEcamp

As we entered the fourth year of CODEcamp, the theme for v.4 was tweak and simplify. We looked over the data of almost 1,200 attendees since the program launched and streamlined this education offering into three offerings – Basic classes, Advanced workshops and a new offering for kids that launches in November. Learn more and/or sign up for a class on the CODEcamp website.

CODEcamp Kids

Recognizing the need to build the talent pipeline, the Digital Corridor has launched CODEcamp Kids with a goal to empower kids to explore their creativity and innovation by learning the fundamentals of web development. Read the official press announcement here. A important component of this program is the Level Up scholarship program for under-privileged children. Please contact me if you are willing to sponsor a child.

CharlestonWorks

Have you visited CharlestonWorks? This company showcase now features 260+ tech and tech-related businesses in the Charleston region. Help us keep this awesome resource accurate by adding/updating your company information and hiring status.

This SaaS tool is now available to other communities wishing to promote companies within targeted business sectors. Please contact me if interested in learning more.

CODEtalks

You want more code? CODEtalks is a daylong event featuring talks and panel discussions regarding the latest software development technologies and trends led by Charleston industry professionals. You can sign up for this event here. Less than 20 tickets remain so do not procrastinate. Thanks to CarePoint, Bibliolabs, PhishLabs, SPARC and the Charleston County Economic Development Office for sponsoring this event.

SPACES

Flagships

The Flagships continue to be the place for tech and tech-related companies. Learn more about our Space offerings and some of our resident companies including Waitlist Me, Alboddo Technology, Doublz, Sustain Creativity, ISI Technology, and in/PACT by visiting the Digital Corridor website. Please contact us if you are interested in one of our two currently available single office opportunities.

Congratulations to FS2 resident, PlanSource for a successful Series C investment round.

CAPITAL

Capital Resources

As you can see from the Capital section on our site, we keep it simple by aggregating the companies interested in investing in tech and tech-related companies in Charleston. If we can assist you with capital opportunities, please contact me.

Did You Know?

The Flagships' three conference facilities, gallery and lounge are available to member companies for corporate meetings & events at favorable rates as compared with other downtown venues. For more information, contact us.

Digital Corridor member companies can post jobs on our Talent Portal for $69.00 per job for 30days or a $299.00 for a 5 pack. The non-member rate is $99.00 per job posting.

Thanks to Our Partners

Charleston Free WiFi

Since an initial grant from Google to add public WiFi to Marion Square park in downtown Charleston, the number has grown to include eight lowcountry parks with this service, with more on the way this year. See active WiFi parks.

Thank you for your continued support of the Charleston Digital Corridor. Our success is a reflection of our terrific engagement and collaboration. Continued success!!
